$10,000 REWARD

SUSPECT VEHICLE

The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, at the recommendation of Supervisor Janice Hahn, has issued a $10,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the July 11th murder of 51-year-old- David Michael Gross

On Wednesday, July 11, 2018, at approx. 9:25 p.m., officers were dispatched to the intersection of Wardlow Road and Orange Avenue regarding a possible stabbing, which resulted in the death of a male adult.

The preliminary investigation determined the suspect vehicle, being driven by a male subject, may have struck the victim as he was crossing the street. The victim and male subject then became involved in a dispute, which resulted in the suspect stabbing the victim. The suspect then fled northbound on Orange Avenue, in a white vehicle missing the rear bumper at the time of the murder.

This murder took place at a time when numerous other vehicles were in the surrounding area of the intersection and detectives believe there are individuals who might have information regarding this incident who have not yet come forward.

Solving this murder and ensuring public safety is of paramount importance to the Police Department.

Detectives strongly urge anyone with information regarding this murder to contact LBPD Homicide Detective Donald Collier at (562) 570-7244.
